Mrs. S.

To whom it may Concern,

I Bee Roberts, being of sound mind contrary to popular opinion, leave to Don Cooper, a years supply of toilette paper, to Lynne Shemp part of my great library, the books "Jealousy will get you nowhere" and "Joy" to Sherrill and Jim Williams, a free six week course in modern dance, to Dee-dee Shroeder my diary which I never kept, to Joey Glover a years supply of combs, to Muskey Glover all of my Everly Bros. records which number 0, and to Bill Akers 500 dirty spark plugs.

Respectfully
Bee Roberts

Being of ill will + sound body, I, Donald Scott Cooper do hereby bequeath these, my last possessions to the poor inhabitants of Prison House

To Jim Williams, many more hangovers + guilty consciences in hopes that he might someday reform.

To Sherill Williams, all the luck in the world she's going to meet with the opposite sex.

To Huey Chauvin, many more thrilling hours of lust + sex he lead us to believe he had (but of course never did).

To Jay Glover + Suzanne Shin each other — that's all they truthfully deserve. Also many hundreds of little Joeys for both of them.

To Margarita Throuwer, much more experience in the art of making love; honesty in playing cards; and all my deepest love + tenderest affections to the only girl I ever knew that was so wonderfully different from the others that she was THE VERY BEST.

To Mickey Glover, eternal happiness only she could share with Dave.

To those unforgettable Diekmans, ... no comment.

To "Smiling" Roberts (Tiller), a slightly sweeter disposition.

To Jack Sharkey, more skill in football so he, too can make varsity.

To Bill Le Valley, one year's supply of Marlboro cigarettes (a man's cigarette) so he can be as tuff as Joey.

To Mike Le Valley, plenty more girls to add to his countless thousands of victories.

To Tom Le Valley, good grades so he can stay on the football team.

And last, but by far not least, I will to Billy Roberts my "have factor"; all the money in the world so he won't have to turn it off me; and the complete, uncharged edition of How to Live Without Parents +

Like it a Lot Better.

Ingratatingly
Signed,

Don Coppi

I Lopay Roberts, being of cracked mind, so everybody claims, and sound body here by bequeath the following to the former occupants of I Live Housing Lynne Shimp: a year's supply of psychiatric care which she needs very to correct her mind - than maybe she will mature a little.

Sherill Williams: all of the signs, posters, etc. which I got from Dee-Dee!
Also, my ability to get along with the opposite sex. hahaha

Jim Williams: All of the many, many, many letters he would have gotten from me if he hadn't been so conceited and would have written back when I wrote.

Donald S. Cooper: (Don Darling) my ability to have an answer for everything and 1000 toilet paper centres for his collection.

Joey Glover: All of the luck and understand that he will need because of the mistakes he made in the past. Also, I leave combs, keys, etc. that I stole from him.

Hughie Chauvin: a dagger in the back for the way he treated me and because of all of his lies that he told everybody.

George Mulhisen: Everything that he wants out of life - because he is really a wonderful guy! I also <sup>the only one I dislike it!</sup> his name that I took off the bulletin board at school and the pictures I took of him.

Mike LeValley: The courage he needs to stand up to the boys and not pay attention to ~~the~~ their teasing when he starts liking Girls!

Bill LeValley: maturity, and wains so he will manage to get through the rest of high school! If he ever gets that far!

Tom LeValley: A new brain - so he doesn't think he's so great when he's not! Also it may help in get better grades in school!

Jim Thresher: A new set of clothes so the next time he walks me home he will look decent!

Mickey Glover: the ability to stay calm and also not to be a fussy and tempermental as she is!

Bill Roberts: A book on how to be nice to people even if you think you are superior to them! And all the luck he needs.

Dee-Dee Thresher: Much happiness when ^{and} she marries Eddie. And the memory of the good times we've had together!

signed: Gypsy Roberts

The Last Will & Testament of James E. Throver!

I, James Throver, being ~~an~~ able body (no thanks to Mike LeValley) do hereby bequeath my worldly possessions to the following people:

To Lou Cooper I give; What? that? You just saw him trying to hitch a ride with "Rome or Bust!" in his suitcase? Well, anyway to the corp I give my ability to tease other people without getting into trouble and the everlasting memory of a summer with Vulgar.

To Bill Roberts, with whom I have never been able to get along, I leave my ability to ride a motor scooter without wrecking up and I hope he will also get a change in his personality to the better.

To Mike LeValley I bequeath the memory of me going over a cliff and also two things concerning the opposite sex: 1. Live and let live

2. If you can't fight 'em join 'em

To Joe Glover I leave the handle to the bathroom door and the key to my old room

To Lynne I leave ~~the~~ my brother's wrecked bike and also the hope of finding another Jay.

To Tony I leave an old undershirt and the memory of the night I walked her home.

To Mickey & Dave I leave each other and hope that someday there will be a whole bunch of Mickey's & Daves running around.

To Hagl, (the big phony) I leave the hope that someday some of his tall tales will come true.

To all the (people?) fish I ever played pool with I leave my skill.
(they need it)

And last and least I leave my least prized possession, namely my sister, Dee-dee and hope your poor "unfortunates" will never meet anyone like her again.

Signed: Jimmy Wheeler

P.S. To George and Sheryl I leave high school and the prospect of their freshman year, hope they have as much fun as I did.

My Will in Testament

I Joey Blower now leave all of my worthy possessions to my best friend as followed. To Dee-Dee I leave her my hair and my comb.

To Lynne I leave my record player and all of my records

To Sherrill and Jim my guitars and pick.

To Eileen my watch

To my dear friend Bill R. my P.G. cat "Tiger"

To Hughie my sun glasses

Now I will leave you in peace! Good Bye

My Last Will and Testament

I, Mike LeValley, being of unsound mind (after living at Trier & going to school at bitburg) and of wrecked body (because of our few but painful, backbreaking & hilarious adventures) hereby leave in Trier Teen Club my last will and Testament.

To Paul Dickmann - an old busted knife blade which he tried so hard to buy from me

② 1 quarter (ha ha ha)

To Jim Thrower - all my talents (which means he might get to add one more to his ^{small} collection)

To Greg Cooper - all my natural attractiveness through which he might get at least one girl (even Marie maybe)

To Don Cooper - all my popularity & ② all my skill at shooting swinging curtain strings & ③ my ear for loud music (steered between building 4 & building 1)

To Bill LeValley - my tuck skill at adjusting moped carburetors & ② my perfect tongue at speaking German (goodshun) ③ all my luck at teasing people (Baldooooo)

To Tom LeValley - my outstanding skill at football (he needs it) more continued

My last will + testament I Arlin Hugh Gawnin,
leave to my dear friends,
not a darn thing,
they don't deserve anything.
Besides my stringy hair going to take it all with me!

Arlin Hugh Gawnin
witness ~~David Williams~~

P.S. Except Sherrill Wilkins

The End

My Latest Will to Testament

I, the Rabbi, on this day of Jan. 14 in the year of our Lord 1962

being of retarded mind & body, do not leave any body anything for I wouldn't give them the sweet off my nose, nor would I spit in their mouth if their teeth were fire.

I, William Roberts, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath to the past inhabitants of Drier Housing the following list of my possessions:

To Jay Glover, a pearl handled switch blade, so that he may remain the two-bit hood that he is.

To Lynne Shimp, Jay Glover, that's about all she deserves.

To Sherrill Williams, all of my maturity so that she won't be as juvenile in high school as she was last year.

To Jim Williams, a dance studio so that he can teach more people to dance as well as he.

To Bill and Tom LeValley, all of my intelligence. God only knows how they need it.

To Mike LeValley, best of luck with the girls.

To Hughie Chauvin, 1) a shovel to dig ~~in~~ his way out of all his bull shit stories and 2) a punch in the mouth for the way he treated my sister.

To George Mulheisen, good luck to a real sharp guy.

- cont'd -

To Eddie Dallar, 50 gallons of gas so he won't run out of it for his scooter like last year.) and memory of all the good times we had on that $5 scooter.

To Eileen Roberts, all of the luck and happiness in the future and hope that she finds that rich fellow she's been wanting.

To Margaritta I. Throver, the memory of all the long discussions we've had since I've known her and good luck in the future. And last but most certain of, not least my good buddy Dan S. Cooper and.

To Donald S. Cooper, I will my complex (superiority) and the best of luck at Rice, and hope that you can forget at least half of your many flames.

Signed William Roberts

I, Margarita Throver, being of sound mind and body bequeath the following wishes and possessions to the former inhabitants of Drier Housing:

To Joey Glover, Lynne Shimp & lots of luck. Hell need it (the luck).

To Lynne Shimp, my figure, whatever she wants it for. Hope she has better luck with it than I have.

To Sherrill Williams a book on How To Understand Men (and get away with it). Also - my ability to shoot pool.

To Jim Williams, a bottle of H_2O_2 & luck with girls.

To Hughie Chauren a suicide pill ~~with~~ hopes that hell take it soon. Also - all the bad luck & misfortune in the world. He deserves it.

To Mickey Glover, adhesive tape to keep her fat mouth shut.

To David Orr, all the luck there what hell do with it, but he can have it).

To George (Rabbi) lots of luck with the all star team & lots of happiness too.

To Bill Roberts, ^{handsome} understanding & life everlasting, and the hope that someday hell find a girl that's right for him ^(also my great knowledge of chemistry).

To Donald Scott Cooper, my ability to play poker, his silver cross & chain (interesting it is), experience, love, happiness, & success.

To Popsy, all my signs etc. on my walls, a lifetime supply of hot dogs & buns, the memory of all the good times & slumber parties, long talks and fun we've had.

To Drier Teen Club, a little organization & my place as member. Served: Lemons & Lico,

Margarita Throver

I, Topsy Roberts, being of sound mind contrary to popular belief Oh Well lets forget get the rest of all that kind of junk.

I hereby bequeath all my mass of slop to the following people.

To my best friend Isatch - my small feet so she won't complain about having big feet.

To Bubblers all of my signs. Don't tear any of them.

To Studd my Radio. Jim if you sell it you can get lots of money for it. Its so cheap you can make 2 pony tails with it & make twice as much money.

To Ket I leave my red shoes. You put the holes in them you might as well keep them.

To Angel - all my hatred toward people which is none at all.

To Bill my records 'cause he uses them anyway.

To BILL ALEX my other brother Bill the record "Big Bad John" that I stole from Dottie (Jinx) that is if he hasn't stolen it back.

To Annabelle all my papers with Ray Lee and I am written on them.

To DOTTIE (Giny) one years supply of coals. I don't know who'll pay for them. I'm not dopy enough to

To Carol (legit) Mickey's big feet when she gets my small ones. So she won't complain about ^{smaller} ~~harder~~

To Grand I leave Mickey Hoping they will be happy together.

to Swoop - my ability to write notes.

To Tiger Team Club
my monkey that the guy at the junk store gave me and I have taken from that.

To Spang Seen Club
my ability to dance

I Y. Sign (Don Darling) my great ability to ~~have~~ an answer ~~to~~ everything and my C.Y.O. card.

To XOXOXE my collection of his combs and anything else of his I've stolen.

To "5 AM" my heart.
Heavens knows what he'll do with it. Really I leave him all my love and kisses etc.

Discussed giving the orphanage a gift. either money or gifts - diapers it was voted on that we donate the money.
Then we discussed the amount that each should donate.

It was voted upon & we decided that 75¢ should be the minimum ~~per~~ but we can donate anything over that.

Janie (treasurer) is in charge of collecting the money.

Loren, Cherrie, Sue & Judy volunteered to go out to the orphanage Wednesday night for the Christmas Party.

Donna Ryan volunteered for social committee chairman.

Meetings will be the first Sunday of every month.

When we have meetings we will sit in the front row on either side.
